

PRAIRIE STREET BREWHOUSE

ROCKFORD, ILLINOIS

Project Description

CLIENT: Gary Anderson & Associates

LOCATION: Rockford, Illinois

COMPLETED: 2013

DESCRIPTION: Originally built as a Peacock Brewing in the 1850's, and later became the Rockford Brewing Company and operated into prohibition before getting shut down in 1918. In 2007 the 10.8 million dollar full renovation began incorporating an event space, condos, 2 restaurants, office & retail space. In Jan. 2012 the building was added to the National Register of Historic Places.

Wendler has provided complete structural services for all renovation work, reconstruction and ADA compliance issues.
